CONNECT THE DOTS!

Exodus 3-4

In the land of Egypt, there was a very powerful leader called Pharaoh. Pharaoh was afraid of God's people. He made God's people slaves. They had to build big buildings for him. It was hot work and hard work. They worked and worked, and they cried out to God. They needed a hero! So God spoke to a man named Moses.

God told Moses that he wanted him to go to the Pharaoh and tell him to let God's people go. Moses was surprised! He had never done anything like that before. He was afraid and said to God, "Oh Lord, what if I go, and Pharaoh doesn't listen? I don't speak that well." God told Moses that if he would go, God would do great things through him!

Moses was still scared because he was afraid that Pharaoh wouldn't understand him. So he asked God if his brother could go instead. God spoke to him and said, "I will help you to speak. And you will know that I am with you. And so will Pharaoh!" Moses was scared, but he obeyed.

Moses traveled to the great Pharaoh's palace. He stood before Pharaoh and told him that God said to let his people go! Because Moses obeyed, all of Egypt saw how powerful God was. After a while, Pharaoh did set God's people free. Moses obeyed God. He was SUPER-DUPER!
