

A Personal Proclamation

The words we speak have spiritual power. Please read this proclamation aloud.

In this season of thanksgiving, I humbly bow before the Lord of lords and King of kings to give thanks to Him and praise His name.

Father, thank You that You have called me out of darkness, extending to me a gift of righteousness and bringing me into the Kingdom of Your Son.

Through the blood of Jesus, I have been sanctified, justified, and declared righteous. Thank You for doing for me—through Jesus—what I could never do on my own.

Though I may face many challenges and difficulties, thank You, Lord, that You are faithful! When I walk through a shadowed valley, You are with me. Your rod and staff, they comfort and protect me. Thank You that I do not need to be afraid. I will not submit to fear because You provide me with courage.

Lord, thank You that You are the Author and Completer of my story. You are the Defender of the weak, and You determine the justice of my life. Thank You that You are my Healer and my complete Provider.

Father, thank You that I am not walking through this journey of time alone. The Holy Spirit is my Helper and my Guide. Lord, give me an awareness of Your Spirit in all areas of my life, that I may follow Your guidance and respond to Your promptings.

Thank You that through Your strength and the Holy Spirit, I have the boldness to stand and speak for You, wherever I go. I choose to use all You have given me to honor You and build Your Kingdom, as I keep my attention upon Jesus, my Lord, Savior, and King.

A Thanksgiving Prayer for Your Dinner Table

Father, thank You for this opportunity to gather together. We recognize that You are the giver of all good things, and You have blessed our lives in so many ways. Lord, help us to turn our hearts to You and honor You with our lives. Thank You for every person gathered here. Thank You that You love them even more than I do, and You want each one of them to know You personally. Lord, stir our hearts to want to draw closer to You each day. Thank You for the gift of Jesus and the freedom we can have through Him. In Jesus' name, amen.
